We are Australia's Defence Bank.

As Australia's Defence Bank, we understand the positive impact a strong community has on the health and wellbeing of our ADF members who live a life like no other.

Every year, we're proud to support organisations and causes that make a difference to the lives of ADF members and their families. From on-base family days to national advocacy groups, we provide funding, volunteering and participation to help build a more connected and inclusive Australian Defence Force.

Community support guidelines.

Who can apply for community support?

Defence Bank only supports events, functions, organisations or activities that have a direct connection or benefit to the Australian Defence Forces, the Defence Community and related charities.

Defence Bank does not support individuals or any events, activities, functions or organisations that raise funds for charities not related to the Defence Community.

Applicants applying must be a Defence Bank member.

What should my application include?

The following considerations and inclusions will help in a successful community support application.

- Outline value and benefits for the local Defence community.
- Be of interest to Defence Bank members.
- Be local to the Defence Bank areas of business.
- Groups should exhibit behaviours similar to Defence Bank and be transparent, friendly, approachable and accountable for the way they act.
- Provision of exclusive and meaningful content for social media and other communications – particularly access to stories we can share, and people we can profile.
- Distribution to your markets of genuinely helpful content from Defence Bank – such as financial literacy articles, how-to videos, product offers etc. Distribution via EDM, social, or other.
- Networking or presentation opportunities for our key staff.

When can an application be made?

Applications can be made at any time throughout the year.

Completing an application form.

Applicants must provide a completed Defence Bank application form and provide any supporting materials such as sponsorship packs, to be considered for support.

Submitting a community support application.

Applications can be submitted to your local branch or to community@defencebank.com.au.

Applicants must allow up to a minimum five weeks for the application to be assessed, and an additional four weeks should it be approved to allow for any support to be organised i.e. display materials. Should your application be approved, the Defence Bank community team or your local Defence Bank branch will confirm with you via email and provide you with next steps.
